

QCWA is a fine group but they are off base with this one. Granting call signs is an always should be the FCC's job and I see no reason to be willing one's call to a radio club. Let the Club apply for it like my local club did and hopefully they too will honor a former member by working for his call.